

2006 Chicago Shell Club Schedule, Winter & Spring

- January 8      Helix Camera and Video. 1:00 - 4:00 PM
310 S. Racine, Chicago, IL
- Speakers: Lee and Jan Kremer, (Chicago Shell Club Members).*
Slide lecture: Shelling in Strange Places.
We seldom see Lee and Jan because they are always traveling around the world. They will show us some of the shells they have collected over the past few years and recount the adventures and fun they had while doing so.
- February 12      Helix Camera and Video, 1:00 - 4:00 PM
310 S. Racine, Chicago, IL
- Speaker: Ron Keim, (Chicago Shell Club Member).*
Slide lecture: Hawaii, from 3000 Feet Above to the Reef.
Ron and Carol are long-time shell club members and avid shell collectors who spend significant time in Hawaii. This will be just right time to have Ron share some of these good times with us.
- March 12      Helix Camera and Video, 1:00 - 4:00 PM
310 S. Racine, Chicago, IL
- Speaker: John Slapcinsky, Collections Manager, Florida Museum of Natural History.*
Slide lecture: Terrestrial New Guinea—The Last Frontier?
John is returning to Chicago to tell us about his adventures in New Guinea. Welcome him back for adventures hard to believe!
- April 9      Helix Camera and Video, 1:00 - 4:00 PM
310 S. Racine, Chicago, IL
- Speaker: Carole Marshall, Lake Worth, FL.*
Slide Lecture: 40 Years Later. A recognized Pecten expert, Carole is active in COA, AMS and several Florida shell clubs. She attended her first Chicago Shell Club meeting 40 years ago, just after the club was founded. She will tell us about Pectens and what she has been doing!
- May 7      The Hayden family home. 1:00 - 4:00 PM
(Contact Mary Owen for directions)
- Spring Auction & Party.
Host: Madeline Hayden. Madeline has again offered her beautiful home for our last get-together before summer. Duane Thenhaus will join us from Iowa bringing a wealth of shells for silent and voice auctions. Topping it off will be a potluck meal. Bring your checkbooks and a dish to share!
